

IN THE TRIAL COURTS OF GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS

506th Judicial District Court, Grimes County Court at Law; and
The Justice Courts of Grimes County, Texas

COVID-19 Operating Plan
For the Grimes County Judiciary

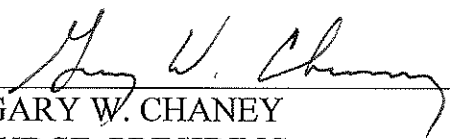

All prior COVID-19 Operating Plans are hereby replaced with this COVID-19 Operating Plan. In accordance with the 38th Emergency Order of the Supreme Court of Texas Regarding the COVID-19 State of Disaster, dated May 26, 2021, this Court finds that this COVID-19 Operating Plan for the Grimes County Judiciary shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Supreme Court of Texas, or this Court.

Emergency Order 38 replaces Emergency Order 36 and permits the Local Administrative Judge courts to modify or suspend deadlines and procedures through August 1, 2021. It further encourages trial courts to continue to use reasonable efforts to hold proceedings remotely; permits trial courts to hold in-person proceedings, including jury trials, after certain actions, including adoption of minimum standard health protocols and an in-person schedule; permits trial courts to hold virtual jury proceedings in certain cases; extends the possession and access to a child provisions from previous orders; and other specified actions.

All Grimes County Trial Courts shall follow the 38th Emergency Order of the Supreme Court of Texas Regarding the COVID-19 State of Disaster as well as the COVID-19 Operating Plan for Conducting Jury Trials for Grimes County, Texas as adopted and promulgated by the Grimes County Administrative Law Judge dated June 4, 2021, and provided on the Administrative Law Judge's website located at www.court506.com. All Grimes County Trial Courts shall have the authority to promulgate and implement additional rules and regulations as that Court feels is necessary to protect the health and safety of any and all participants in their respective Courts while insuring the administration of Justice is done.

This Operating Plan is effective June 4, 2021, and extended until further Order of the Supreme Court of Texas, or until further Order of this Court.

Dated June 4, 2021.

GARY W. CHANEY
JUDGE, PRESIDING
Local Administrative District Judge
